

Dear brothers and sisters, we're happy to present a seminar for workers in Turkey with the aim of expanding our understanding of Islam in Turkey. This seminar will focus on the practical and theoretical aspects of using and understanding language associated with Islam, understanding the doctrines of Islam that contribute to typical responses to hearing the Good News, and how we can better share with our neighbours linguistically and doctrinally speaking.

This seminar will be given by a former Muslim who has been doing ministry for 10 years in Turkey, has taken advanced education in Islam and continues to study the doctrines of Islam.

This seminar will be held on the weekend of November 24-25, 2017 in Kadıköy.

It will take place in 3-hour sessions from 14:00-17:00.

Do expect Muslim guest speakers (Imam) on particular days as this will provide an invaluable opportunity to ask questions and receive information.

Seminar content will include:

History of Islam,
Life of Muhammed,
Denominations of Islam,
Forms of worship in Islam,
Prophecy in Islam, the Bible in Islam.

Practical topics will include :

Sharing the Gospel with Muslims, Praying with Muslims, being a friend and neighbour to Muslims.

All levels of Turkish speakers are invited including beginners. Although the seminar will be given in Turkish, a translator will be provided.

The seminar cost will be 200 TL.
